HSZ China Fund Share class A EUR (CH0026828092) Fund management company: FundPartner Solutions (Suisse) SA

Objectives and investment policy

The investment objective of the HSZ China Fund is to generate long-term capital gains, primarily through Chinese equity-related securities and security rights.

The fund invests mainly in equities and similar instruments (stocks, dividend-right certificates, cooperative shares, participation certificates, etc.) from companies headquartered or carrying out most of their activities in the People's Republic of China (or holding companies with holdings mainly in companies headquartered in the People's Republic of China).

The intention is for the fund assets to comprise the securities of at least 20 companies at all times, with no individual position accounting for more than 15% of the fund assets.

The fund cannot invest in other funds or fixed-income instruments (e.g. Bonds).

Directly (at least 51%) or indirectly, the fund invests primarily in China, an emerging market.

Dealing Frequency

Units of the investment fund may be subscribed and redeemed on any working day, except on public holidays in Switzerland or when a substantial part of the stock exchanges and markets of the investment fund are closed.

Distribution Policy

The Class may distribute a dividend.

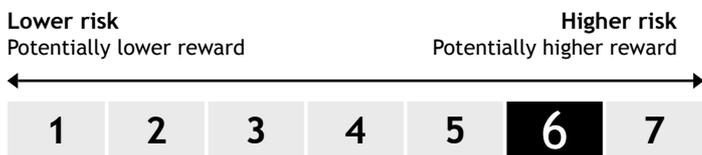

Currency

The currency of the Class is EUR.

Minimum Investment and/or Holding Requirement

"A EUR" units are distribution units, and are issued in euros. No currency hedging is undertaken.

Risk and reward profile

Risk Disclaimer

- This current risk profile is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Investment Fund.

- The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may shift over time.

- The lowest category, which corresponds to Number 1, cannot be regarded as being risk-free.

- The Investment Fund does not provide any capital guarantee or asset protection measures.

Why is this Investment Fund in this category?

The unit class is allocated to this risk category on the basis of price fluctuations resulting from its currency, the type and the strategy of the investment fund.

The share class is further allocated to this risk category as the investment fund invests in equity securities of companies within the People's Republic of China. Such assets are subject to considerable price fluctuations, with the potential return being proportional to the risks assumed.

Are there any other particular Risks?

This value is influenced by various factors, including the following:

- The Investment Fund provides no capital guarantee and takes no steps to protect its assets.

- This asset class is subject to political and economic risks which can have a significant impact on the performance and volatility of the Investment Fund.

- The unit class is also exposed to the following risks which are not included in the synthetic risk indicator:

• Liquidity risks: In the event of unusual market conditions or if the market volume is particularly low, the investment fund may find it difficult to value and/or dispose of some of its investments, in particular to meet large redemption requests.

• Counterparty risks: The investment fund may enter into various transactions with contracting parties. If a contracting party becomes insolvent, it can no longer or only partially settle the amounts owed to the investment fund.

• Operational risk: The investment fund is exposed to the risk of significant losses due to human error, system errors or incorrect valuations of the underlying assets.

• Settlement risk: By investing in the financial markets, the investment fund is exposed to the risk of settlement at a discount or of securities not being transmitted timely or not at all.

For the specific risks associated with the investment fund, please refer to the prospectus.
